

FISHING AND BOATING

1. The waterway system is for the sole use of all Raven's Run property owners, (Members) and their guests.
  - a. Members, their immediate family, and overnight houseguests may utilize the waterways at their leisure. Members whose house guest remain three or more days and who are interested in fishing or boating during their visit should let the management company be aware of these guests, via telephone message, giving your name, names of your overnight house guests, and length of their visit.
  - b. Members must accompany and be present at all times for all non-resident guests not mentioned in paragraph 1a. above.
  - c. Minors must be supervised by Adult Homeowners (Members).
2. The RR Board of Directors shall have complete authority to canvass the waterways and enforce all rules and regulations.
3. Only RRHO/lot owners and immediate family boats are allowed in the waterway system. Boats over sixteen (16') are not permitted. Only single electric or gas motors FOUR HORSEPOWER OR LESS are permitted on the lakes.

The motor size will be carefully monitored in order to slow erosion of shorelines and for noise control. Boats must be stored where they are not visible from the street side.
4. No swimming at any time in any Raven's Run waterways will be permitted.
5. No diving or jumping from any bridge will be permitted.
6. No trash will be thrown in the lake system.
7. All fishermen must follow the South Carolina Natural Resources Department's Rules and Regulations, i.e., fishing licenses are required, etc.
8. Live bait, other than worms, is not permitted.
